

RESOLUTION OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE CZECH REPUBLIC

of 30 October 2020, No. 1112

Adopting an Emergency Measure

In relation to Government Resolution No. 957 of 30 September 2020, whereby the Government, in line with Articles 5 and 6 of Constitutional Act No. 110/1998 Coll., on the Security of the Czech Republic, declared a state of emergency for the Czech Republic, due to a threat to health in relation to the documented occurrence of a coronavirus (designated as SARS CoV-2) in the Czech Republic, and in line with Section 5(a) to (e) and Section 6 of Act No. 240/2000 Coll., on Crisis Management and amending certain acts (the Crisis Act), as amended, to address the current emergency situation, the government has decided to adopt emergency measures, pursuant to Section 5(1)(b) to (e) and Section 6(1)(b) of the Crisis Act.

The Government restricts, effective from 12:00 a.m. on 2 November 2020 through to 11:59 p.m. of 20 November 2020

1. the operation of universities pursuant to Act No. 111/1998 Coll., on Universities, and on the amendment and supplementation of certain other laws (the Universities Act), as amended, including foreign universities and their branches operating in the Czech Republic (hereinafter referred to as “universities”), in that the personal presence of students at courses and examinations, if more than 10 persons are present at one examination time, during study at the university and participants in lifelong education courses is prohibited; the prohibition of the personal presence of students pursuant to this point does not apply to participation at clinical and practical training and the practice of students in the study programs of general medicine, dentistry, pharmacy and other medical study programs, and students conducting pedagogical instruction and training at preschools, primary and secondary schools or school facilities for the conducting of institutional and protective education,
2. the operation of universities, in that the provision of accommodation to university students who have another place of residence in the Czech Republic, is prohibited at the accommodation facilities of universities, except for those students on whom a work obligation was imposed by the government pursuant to Act No. 240/2000 Coll., on Crisis Management and on the amendment of certain laws (the Crisis Act), as amended, and students participating in clinical and practical instruction or training pursuant to point 1,
3. the operation of secondary and higher vocational schools and conservatories pursuant to Act No. 561/2004 Coll., on Preschool, Elementary, Secondary, Higher College and other Education (the Schools Act), as amended, and at events organised by these schools, in that the personal presence of pupils and students in secondary and higher vocational education at schools and education at conservatories is prohibited, with the exception of
  - schools established alongside facilities for the execution of institutional education or protective education,
  - schools established by the Ministry of Justice,
  - practical training and practical preparation of pupils and students of medical fields at healthcare facilities and social service facilities,
4. the operation of primary schools pursuant to the Schools Act, in that the personal presence of pupils in primary education at primary schools is prohibited; the first sentence of this point does not apply to the schools attached to healthcare facilities.

5. the operation of primary art schools and language schools with the right to conduct state language examinations pursuant to the Schools Act, in that the personal presence of pupils in basic art education at elementary art schools and language education at language schools with the right to conduct state language examinations is prohibited, including the attendance of pupils and candidates at state language examinations,
6. the operation of leisure centers, school clubs and school groups, in that the personal presence of children, pupils and students and other participants in this extracurricular education is prohibited,
7. the operation of school educational and accommodation facilities, in that the provision of accommodation is prohibited to the pupils of schools and students of higher vocational schools pursuant to the Schools Act, who have another place of residence in the Czech Republic, at school educational and accommodation facilities (youth homes, boarding schools), except for those pupils and students on whom a work obligation was imposed pursuant to the Crisis Act, and students who participate in practical training and practical preparation pursuant to point 3; school field trips are prohibited,
8. the operation of schools, except for preschools, and school facilities pursuant to the Schools Act and universities, in that education will not include singing,
9. the operation of schools, except for preschools, pursuant to the Schools Act and universities, in that sports activities as a part of education are prohibited.

Andrej Babiš
Prime Minister